Tip: Make sure the room has the right amount of light. Do not point any lights directly in to the camera. For best results, position a lamp or other light source directly behind the webcam and about 10 to 20 inches above your head (do not point light directly at your eyes or your face). Make sure to turn off the TV, stereo, or anything that can generate noise. Running programs or downloading files in the background will slow down your internet connection and may cause your computer to crash.
